THE BANGOR DAILY

DAILY

For 1880

Commenced its Forty-Seventh Volume with the New Year, with all departments fully equipped and prepared to maintain its position as one of THE LEADING DAILY PAPERS OF NEW ENGLAND. THE WHIG AND COURIER receives all the telegraphic news of the Maine Associated Press, and has an extensive corps of correspondents throughout the State. The Publishers aim to make it in all respects a devoting care to the presentation of entertaining and instructive news and literary matter; to the encouragement of Agriculture, manufacturing and other home interests; with original and selected stories and poetry, and choice miscellany.

Its Regular Reports

will give the proceedings of Congress and the events at Augusta this winter will be chronicled daily by a thoroughly-informed special correspondent.

IN THE POLITICAL FIELD

the WHIG AND COURIER will continue to advocate and uphold the Principles of the Republican Party, while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the treatment of all public questions and firmly maintaining what they believe to be right, they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The Presidential election and the important issues it involves,—the proceedings of Congress and of our State Legislature,—the great activity and improvement in all the industrial and business departments of the country, will make the coming year one of the most exciting and important in the history of the country, and the WHIG AND COURIER congratulates itself that the Republican Party of the Union will enter the year 1880 united upon the platform of Principles which that paper has steadfastly maintained while so many wavered.

THE WHIG AND COURIER will be sent by mail postage-paid, at the following rates, invariably in advance:

$3.00 per Year; $1.00 for 6 mos; $2.00 for 3 mos. $1.50 for the session of the Legislature.

THE BANGOR WEEKLY COURIER

is the largest weekly paper published in New England. Every issue is accompanied by a two-page Supplement, making a newspaper of FORTY-EIGHT COLUMNS almost entirely devoted to reading matter. It contains all the latest telegraph news up to the hour of going to press, and gives the substance of a whole week's edition of the Daily, including Ship News, Produce, Markets, Cattle and other Markets, with a large amount of family reading.

Terms, postage-paid, in advance:

$2.00 per year; $1.00 for 6 mos.; 50 cts for 3 mos. Or to Clubs in any one town: 15 copies for 1 year, $26.25; 25 copies 1 year, $40 00; 50 copies 1 year, $75.00, with copy free to person remitting money for the club.

Send for a free specimen copy.

Imitations.

To protect the public against Imitations and Fraud we caution all purchasers of

to see that the word CAPCINE on the label is correctly spelled. Do not allow some other plaster to be palmed off under a similar sounding name, with the assurance that it is the same thing or as good. Bear in mind that the only object such venders can have is the fact that they can buy imitations at the prices less than that of the genuine, and they hope by this substitution to gain a small additional profit.

CALIFORNIA STOCK-GAMBLING.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle, Feb. 25.]

Some of the New York papers are borrowing a good deal of trouble on California's account. The prophetic soul of Cassandra was not apparently more deeply troubled about the fate of Ilium than some of our Eastern contemporaries have recently been about San Francisco. What troubles them is the fact that some of our heavy stock operators have set up shop in Gotham, and a fair prospect that others will follow them, leaving this city lonely and forlorn and the coast in mourning. One would naturally suppose that such a change, if it is really going to carry a vast amount of solid capital to the East, would be welcomed by the New York papers and their merchants, by joyful exclamation rather than the particular incentive for dolor over San Francisco's misfortune. That it is not so welcomed is a circumstance which excites suspicion that, after all, perhaps the New York papers do not regard favorably the transfer of mining stock gamblers' headquarters from the Pacific to the Atlantic side of the continent. Whatever their opinion may be on the subject, we assure them that it is the best judgment of this community that the exodus will be a substantial benefit to this State and all the coast, and most of all to San Francisco. In the last twenty years—since the discovery of the Comstock lode—we have had earthquakes, flood and drouth, each of itself a great ill, but all of them together the merest scare-crows of misfortune by comparison with the overshadowing evil of gambling in mining stocks, as it developed itself here and as it is sure to develop again wherever its new headquarters may be established.

It is wasting time and space to describe the personnel and methods of the stock-gambling fraternity. It is in the main composed of men who began without capital, who never discovered a mine nor sought to promote mining, who never produced anything, nor added one dollar to the substantial wealth of the city or State for every thousand they have managed to fleece people of honest toil out of. They were, and are, and will continue to be, wherever they may go, gamblers pure and simple, as much as those of the green cloth, differing from the men of the "tiger" only in greater heartlessness, greed, ingenuity in trapping their victims, and the infinitely greater magnitude of their game. Gambling with cards never demoralizes a whole community. Respectability, the church, the law condemns it, and people of settled moral principles avoid it. Not so with the stock-gambling blight, as it sprouted and grew into the full-blown plant here. It stretched the dark shadow of its upas growth all over our society and bound respectability and the church equally with the natural enthusiasts and the unsettled in moral principles. In the days of its greatest glory it was not uncommon to hear it unhesitatingly if not directly flattered and encouraged from the pulpit; and leading churchmen, merchants, professors, and even pastors are known to be on the list of its conspicuous victims. It has bankrupted its hundreds, thousands, nay tens of thousands, including the great and the small, farmers, mechanics, laborers, housemaids, officials, widows, and the guardians of orphan children, who were thought to be above the suspicion of dishonesty or dishonor, and were so, too, till assailed by this Mephistophelian temptation.

Prior to the outbreak of this moral and physical scourge San Francisco was a wealthy and most prosperous city. Extreme poverty was unknown among us, and the middle-class was the most independent middle class to be found in any city. The proportion of householders and people enjoying a competence was larger than that of any other city in the world. If we had no bonanza princes, neither did we have many beggars, nor many families of average industry and frugality without homes of their own and means to maintain themselves. After the three or four waves of stock-gambling had swept over the city and spent their cruel force upon its population, this happy, prosperous condition of society was all changed. It was found that for every one who had made a fortune in the "deals" there were hundreds who had been utterly wrecked and ruined. The wealth of the entire community, the earnings of more than half a generation of patient toil and honorable effort in legitimate industries were all swept into the coffers of a few artful, heartless, lying, fraudulent, remorseless speculators, who had played their game with such a lack of honesty and fair dealing as would shame the meanest trickster engaged in bunko or false dice or three-card monte. This, far more than the Chinese nuisance, or any or all other evils that afflict the State, has caused the existing depression in San Francisco business, and swelled the list of its homeless, houseless, penniless dependants now calling for work and bread.

Say it was their own fault; that they had no business to gamble; that having gambled and lost, they have no just right to complain. The same can be said of the poor dupes of the bunko and monte guilds. But for all that there is nothing to be said against the law which treats these wretches as criminals and interdicts their infamous games. Neither can there be a decent rebuke of the new Constitution for putting its ban upon the greater and more dreadful social and political evil of gambling in mining stocks. If it drives out this class of gamblers and sends them to new fields, we should exult at the riddance and sympathize with those who are relieving us of an evil at the risk of soon suffering from it themselves. Let them go, and in haste. Their capital has never contributed but to our distress and general poverty. With them will go the spirit of gambling, fraud and false policy. Being gone, the people of San Francisco will again settle down to legitimate industry, and agricultural and mining developments will take the place of stock gambling. Thrift will speedily follow upon the beaten tracks of frugality and honest work, and we shall in a year or two get back some of the millions which have been filched from the people by these departing cormorants. Their reign is at end here, and we are glad of it. If New York wants them let her have them. And welcome. Our mines, our lands, our hard-fisted population will remain with us, and the State and city will get along all the better for its riddance of the stock gamblers.

National Republican Convention.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago on Thursday, the 3d day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice-President at the next election. Republicans and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominees of the party are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON,
Chairman National Committee.
THOMAS B. KEOGH, Secretary.

THE ELECTIONS—DISAGREEING COMMENTS OF TWO DEMOCRATIC ORGANS.

[From the Maine Standard, March 10.]

One would suppose from reading the Republican newspapers, that the Spring elections had resulted entirely in their favor, and that no opposition party existed in the State. Why those papers continue to so shamelessly lie to their readers, day after day, is a thing no fellow can find out. The elections just over have resulted more favorable to the opposition than to the Republicans.

[From the Bangor Commercial, March 9.]

The municipal elections yesterday from a variety of local causes resulted in general REPUBLICAN SUCCESSES by somewhat larger majorities than usual.

The action of the House on Wednesday in voting to restore the salary of the Justices of the Supreme Court to where it stood before the Fusion Legislature of last year slashed at it, will be cordially approved by all citizens who appreciate the importance of retaining jurists of a high order of ability on the Bench. It is creditable to some of the prominent Fusion lawyers of the House that they refused to join in partisan opposition to this just and proper measure.

The Republican District Conventions held in this city and Lewiston yesterday elected four more Delegates to the National Convention, so that there have now been chosen four Delegates-at-large and eight district Delegates all instructed in the most cordial manner to use every honorable effort for the nomination of Mr. Blaine for President. The Fifth District Delegates are not yet reported but there is no question about their uniting heartily with their colleagues in a solid Maine delegation for Blaine.

The Boston Journal says: A dozen different colleges in seven different Northern States have polled an aggregate of over 3000 votes for Presidential preferences. The following is the result: Blaine, 871; Grant, 618; Bayard, 581; Sherman, 481; Tilden, 73; Garfield, 63; Washburne, 61; Edmunds, 52; Hayes, 50; Evarts, 26.

The Utica Herald learns that the new editor of the Philadelphia Press, Mr. C. F. Smith, late of the Albany Journal, and President of the New York Republican Convention, has become a pronounced advocate of Mr. Blaine's candidacy.

Senator Cameron is said to have admitted in Washington recently that the opposition to General Grant may become so strenuous that his nomination, when the Convention meets, may be inadvisable.—That shows that the Senator's reputation for political sagacity is well grounded, just as the Harrisburg Convention proved that his skill in political generalship, even under the most unfavorable circumstances is unrivalled.—N. Y. Tribune.

A notable feature of to-day's Convention was the enthusiasm with which the speech of Hon. Llewellyn Powers was greeted while the remarks of Capt. Boutelle were received with coldness and apathy.—Commercial.

The above cruel paragraph, not by the reporter, but by the editor of the Commercial, increases the suspicion that the Fusion organ is not fond of Mr. Boutelle.

BENSON'S BOUNCE.

THE FARCICAL LIBEL SUIT.

NEWPORT, March 10, 1880.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

Perhaps some of the readers of the WHIG AND COURIER may be interested to know a little more of the "trial" which came off at Newport last Saturday afternoon, a brief notice of which appeared in the Associated Press dispatches last Monday. The editor of the Times was arrested on a criminal process, for libel, in the publication of a certain portion of the IVth chapter of The New Book of Chronicles, the same which was republished in your issue of Tuesday last. The respondent was arraigned last Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock, before old Doctor Bishop, who got a commission as Trial Justice through the intercession of a former representative in the Legislature from this class.

John Benson, Jr., the complainant, was counsel for the State, and he braced up and commenced to read the warrant in a very tragic and impressive manner, but when he came to the quotation which follows, the situation was so absolutely ridiculous that he could not possibly keep his face straight, and indulged in several good healthy guffaws:

23. Now this was the letter that Jaybensonjunior wrote: To my dear and affectionate father:—Behold the enemy approacheth clad in the panoply of war, and events, even startling events, will occupy the next forty and eight hours. But remember that thy son who came forth like a flower is to be cut down, for he will be at the front and among the fallen. Remember that he died for the left wing, even the fushun wing of his country, and for the principles he has so long cherished.

Respondent plead not guilty, and prosecution called witnesses for the State. He had summoned between twenty and thirty, to prove a point for which two or three would have been amply sufficient, and he declared that he would have called in more if he could have found them—all to be paid for by the County of Penobscot.

Your correspondent will not undertake to give any detailed account of the trial—for no pen picture would do it justice. It was one of the greatest burlesques upon a court of justice that has ever been known in this section, and perhaps I might say, the whole State; and it certainly seems that if the members of a Legislature could have been present, they would have lost no time in passing a law—in regard to the appointment of Trial Justices, which should require all applicants for such positions to show some recommendations from competent persons, as well as to undergo a proper personal examination. The Trial Justice before whom the respondent was arraigned possesses no qualifications whatever for the place; to commence with, if he ever had any ability, he is now generally understood to be in his second childhood; he never studied law, and he does not know so much about the law, and what is proper under the law, as do nine out of ten of the citizens as they are met on the street. He was made a Trial Justice by certain parties, or through the efforts of certain parties, of whom the complainant in this case is one, to be used as their supple tool. Several actions have originated before him but they have all commenced and ended right there; the only result accomplished has been the venting of bad blood by John Benson, Jr., & Co., and the County has paid the bills.

I have authority for saying that the defense at first intended to waive any examination, as it is a well known fact that before His Honor old Doctor Bishop, all cases are tried and verdict rendered before the court opens. But it was afterwards thought best to let the prosecution go on, and show themselves. At the start, it was very evident to the crowd that the only object aimed at by respondent and his counsel, Don A. H. Powers, Esq., was to put the complainant and the Judge who was under his supervision, into as many ridiculous situations as possible. For instance, when the first witness was cross-examined, the counsel for defense insisted that he testify as to whether or not the objectionable part of the IVth Chapter of the New Book of Chronicles was libelous, and the competent Judge allowed the quibbling on this point to go on for an hour or so, before it occurred to him that such a question to a witness was entirely out of place. The counsel for defense also succeeded in getting the old Doctor up before the crowd to explain certain delicate points of law, and it is the testimony of all lovers of fun that no comic show ever held in Meridian Hall ever gave half so much real enjoyment for a quarter, as was here obtained without money and without price.

It is very, very unfortunate for the legal fraternity that a short-hand reporter had not been present to have caught the impressive expositions of Judge Bishop, verbatim et literatim, as they fell from his lips. It should not be understood however that infallibility is claimed for the Doctor, even by himself, for he said explicitly: "I may make some mistakes in my rulings, but the idee is, this case goes to the higher tribunal above, which is more adverse in the science of law than I am." The Doctor made frequent allusions to the "Statue" and the "Statues," and advanced various and many "idees," which may have been clear enough to himself, but could not be comprehended by the common herd.

Benson said that he should call for bail in a very high sum, and named $2000. Defense expressed readiness to procure the bond, which astonished Jaybensonjunior mightily, for he expected that objection would be made, and had got all ready to fire off his mouth at this point, in a windy political speech. He said that he wished to say a few words explanatory of his course in calling for so large a bond, but counsel for respondent promptly told him that no explanation was needed—was willing to give the bond—none too high—could have a larger one if he wanted it. But Benson had got ready to open the campaign in behalf of the steal and the advocates thereof at this particular point, and old Doctor Bishop allowed him to go on. Among other rant, he said that the Chronicles were written and published as a part of a deep laid plot at Augusta to ostracise and make ridiculous the doctrines of the Fusionists, and the Fusionists themselves; that he had brought this action not altogether on his own account, but because the New Chronicles were making the Fusionists all over the State objects of public ridicule; said in effect that he would not have hesitated to pour out his blood in fighting for the steal; swore before Almighty God that the alleged letter to his father was a forgery, that he never wrote such a letter, and that such a letter was never in existence; but almost in the same breath he said that he knew who sent a copy of that letter from Newport to the Lewiston Journal, and that he was going for said individual, but the Journal would be attended to first; he said he was Deputy Secretary of State under "Gov." Smith, and made allusions to Mr. Davis, with the emphasis as here indicated; he reviled the churches and the ministers of the Gospel, and slurred the Supreme Court of Maine without stint. His speech was sprinkled all through with violent personal abuse of the editor of the Times, and the author of the Chronicles. Several sympathizers with the Steal, whose feet and hands are much more largely developed than their heads, had been judiciously posted in different parts of the audience, and whenever Benson made a political point, or bit the Church or Court a slap, or poured forth a specially bitter tirade of abuse, they would make a great noise and work their hands and feet most lustily. But finally the end came, and counsel for defense moved an acquittal on the ground that no case had been made out by the prosecution. His Honor old Doctor Bishop did not entertain the motion, but, without giving defense an opportunity to bring in witnesses, if they had any, said after consulting in whispers with his boss, that he should require prisoner to give bail in sum of $500 for his appearance for trial at August (criminal) term of Court at Bangor. Bail was promptly furnished and the High Court adjourned.

Are Now Matters of General Interest,
And are Attracting Much Attention,
BOTH FROM SCIENTIFIC AND MEDICAL MEN.
The Following Article will be Read with Great Interest, Especially by Sufferers from Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis and Indigestion.

Celery has only come into public notice within the last few years as a nervine, but scientific experiments and experience have proved beyond a doubt that it controls Nervous Irritation and periodic Nervous and Sick Headaches to a marked degree.
But a combination of the EXTRACT OF CELERY AND CHAMOMILE, which has been but recently introduced to the profession and the public by myself, has produced such marvellous results in curing nervousness and headache, and especially nervous and sick headaches, neuralgia, indigestion and sleeplessness, that it has excited public attention and newspaper comments, and, therefore, I give the following information to the public to avoid answering hundreds of letters of inquiry about them.
My Celery and Chamomile Pills, for the cure of headaches and nervousness, are prepared under my supervision, and are intended expressly to cure headaches, neuralgia, indigestion, sleeplessness and nervousness, and will cure any case where no organic disease of the brain or spinal cord exists. Hundreds of cases of many years' standing have been cured. No matter how chronic or obstinate the case may be, a permanent cure is morally certain. This statement is made after years of experience in their use in the general practice of medicine.
These pills are also valuable for school children who suffer from nervous headaches, caused by an overworked brain in their studies, and for all classes of hard brain-workers, whose overtaxed nervous centres need repair and sedation. Nervous tremor, weakness and paralysis are being daily cured by these pills. They correct costiveness, but are not purgative.

PILES CURED.
PILES—Poor, suffering humanity has endured for ages torture beyond description from internal bleeding, external and itching piles; have spent their money freely, bought every nostrum offered, travelled far and near to consult eminent men in relation to their sufferings until disheartened and worn out by repeated failures. But hope revives; a new remedy is discovered, has been tried and found reliable. Briggs' Pile Remedy will cure internal bleeding, external and itching piles. Try it, ye suffering and discouraged mortals, and by its use obtain comfort to you for years unknown. Sold wholesale and retail by Wm. E. Mann, T. J. Taney, J. F. Patten and W. L. Alden. BUNIONS CURED.
CORNS—There are only a few torments worse than corns, such as mischief-making neighbors, troublesome mothers-in-law, meddlesome sisters-in-law and scolding wives, lazy, drunken husbands, howling dogs and cats under your window, the clamor of the butcher, the baker, the grocer, the milk-man, the landlord, when you have not a cent to pay. If troubled with corns, bunions, bad nails, or other pedal impediments, banish them with Briggs' Bunion Balsam and Sure Corn Cure, and be happy. Sold wholesale and retail by Wm. E. Mann, T. J. Taney, J. F. Patten, and W. L. Alden. Address, Dr. JOSIAH BRIGGS, Newark, N. J.

CUTICURA
BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS
The scourge of mankind.—Old methods of treatment and remedies a failure.
CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this century. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of Cuticura, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all itching and scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.
ECZEMA ON THE SCALP,
Breast and Limbs Cured.
Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen,—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful Cuticura Remedies, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The Cuticura has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.
I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral Springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs. —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.
April 1 last, I began the use of Cuticura, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of the Cuticura entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the Cuticura Resolvent as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.
Yours, etc., STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30th, 1878.
A RUNNING SORE
Cured in One Week.
Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10th, 1878.
NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

The bill to incorporate the Penobscot Valley Gorsedh of Bards and State of Maine Board of the Druidic University of America, which came from the House referred to the next Legislature, was taken up and elicited extended remarks in favor by Barker of Penobscot. The bill was amended and given a passage.

House.

The bill to abolish the office of Land Agent, pending the adoption of amendments offered by Cutler of Bangor, was tabled on motion of Young of Brunswick.

The House concurred with the Senate in indefinitely postponing the bill giving a salary of $2,000 to the State Liquor Agent.

The House voted to adhere to its former vote in indefinitely postponing the bill dividing the city of Rockland and establishing the town of West Rockland by a vote of 64 to 34. The Senate had previously insisted on its vote giving the bill a passage.

Bill amendatory of chap. 17 and 27 of the R. S., in relation to common nuisances, and the sale of intoxicating liquors, pending its passage to be engrossed in concurrence was tabled on motion of Dickey of Fort Kent. Subsequently it was assigned for to-morrow.

The following was adopted:

Ordered—That the Committee on Ways and Means be directed to assess a State Tax for this year, of five mills on each dollar of the State valuation.

Legislation inexpedient is reported on order of inquiry relating to amending the statute so as to provide that the Superintendent of the Insane Hospital shall be Treasurer.

A bill was presented and referred to Judiciary Committee relating to the sale of the franchise of railroad corporations. Provides that the provisions of sections 17 to 20 each inclusive of chap. 84 of the R. S. shall be construed so as to apply to the franchises of railroad corporations whose railroads lie wholly within this State, except that in case of railroad corporations notice shall be given of the time and place of sale by posting a notification thereof at the Court House in each county through which such railroad runs, either wholly or in part thirty days at least before the day of sale and by causing an advertisement to be published three weeks in a newspaper.

Bill relating to the Kennebec and Franklin Telephone Company was taken from the table and passed.

Bill incorporating the consolidated Eastern Slate Company of Monson, was taken from the table, and pending its passage to be engrossed, Verrill of Portland, moved its indefinite postponement. Tabled and assigned for to-morrow.

Goss of Bath, moved to amend by striking out section 5 which provides that the act shall be inoperative unless the inhabitants of the county at annual town meetings in 1880 shall by a majority vote accept the same.

Jewett of Richmond, opposed amendment. The amendment was rejected.

Another amendment was offered and adopted that the act shall be voted upon at the next September election. The bill was then given a passage.

Majority and minority reports relating to the shore fisheries were taken up. The former report repeals the porgie law of 1879 and the latter report strikes out the one mile limit. The question was on substituting the minority for the majority report, which was debated by Gilman of Meddybemps, Clay of Bluehill, Fennelly of Mt. Desert, and Butler of Vassalboro. Without reaching a result the House adjourned.

[TO ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

In Senate.—A message was sent to the House asking for return of an act to facilitate consolidation of the Acton Silver Mining Co., the Portland Acton Silver Mining Co., the Forest City Silver Mining Co., and the Boston Acton Silver Mining Co. SECOND DISTRICT CONVENTION.

BLAINE DELEGATES FOR CHICAGO.

LEWISTON, Me., March 11. The Republican District Convention here to-day elected Wm. P. Frye and J. W. Wakefield delegates and J. P. Swazy and Charles J. Talbot alternates to Chicago, and passed the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we congratulate not only the Republicans of Maine, but all other good citizens on the signal manner in which the people have expressed their condemnation of the wicked attempt to overthrow the popular verdict at the polls, and call upon all friends of law and order to unite with the Republican party in giving such an expression at the elections yet to come as will show to the world that the people of Maine not only appreciate the value of popular government but are also determined to preserve its fundamental idea, the right of every man duly qualified to cast one and only one free ballot, and to have that vote counted.

Resolved, That the delegates to the National Republican Convention this day selected by the Second District Republican Convention are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of JAMES G. BLAINE as the candidate of the Republican party for President, believing that he is a man pre-eminently fitted to lead the Republican party to victory in the coming National campaign, and to fill the Presidential chair with ability and success.

EXPRESS OFFICE ROBBED.

The People of Sidney at a Fever Heat.

Talk of Lynching the Thieves if Captured.

CHEYENNE, March 11. The mounted men who were reported going north prove to be well known stock men and are not suspected of the bullion robbery. The pursuit of the robbers is continued by the detectives. The bullion was taken from a truck in the express office which adjoins the telegraph office. A hole was made in the floor of the office and it must have been made by experts as no unusual noise was heard by the operator, who was in an adjoining room during the absence of the express agent. The immense weight of the treasure—four hundred and eighty pounds avoirdupois—prevented the robbers from carrying it off and they were compelled to conceal it at the first available spot which was the coal pile. The excitement in Sidney is at fever heat, many being suspected of complicity. If the evidence prove strong against some who are suspected it is thought that Nebraska will be saved the expense of a trial for them.

FRANCE.

Small Pox.

PARIS, March 11. The prevalence of small pox here is causing much alarm and the municipal council is taking measures against its further spread.

ENGLAND.

A Premature Statement.

LONDON, March 11. The Standard is informed that the statements with reference to measures for the purchase of Irish waste lands for distribution to farmers was premature.

The Home Rule Confederation.

The home rule confederation has issued the following manifesto to the Irish people in Great Britain: "Beaconsfield has issued in the guise of a letter to the Viceroy of Ireland, a declaration of war upon your country and your friends. The ministry is seeking to obtain a renewed term of office by sowing dissensions and hatred between Englishmen and Irishmen, and Beaconsfield's vicious manifesto directly appeals to the worst passions and prejudices for the purpose of stirring up Englishmen against Irish nationality. The ministry neither knows nor cares how to relieve our distress. Fellow countrymen, Beaconsfield's foreign policy has been an inglorious and disastrous failure. Vote against him as you would an enemy of your country." The manifesto is signed by several members of Parliament.

MASSACHUSETTS.

GLOUCESTER, March 11. The British schooner Grand Master has arrived from Pubinco, N. S., with ninety-two passengers to go on board the fishing fleet. The Alteration of Returns Confessed.

ADJUTANT-GENERAL LEAVITT "CURING DEFECTS."

Sawyer and Garcelon to Testify.

J. R. Talbot Admits the Truth of the Washington County Charges.

AUGUSTA, March 11. James R. Talbot, the counted-in Senator from Washington County, was before the Hale Committee to-day in obedience to a summons and testified as to the substitution of returns in Washington County. He said that early in November Hon. S. D. Leavitt, then Adjutant General, sent him three blank returns with official envelopes and wrote describing the defects in the returns from Addison, Jonesboro and Whiting. He requested Talbot to have the returns filled out by the town officers and returned to the Secretary of State, correcting the errors to which he had specially called attention. Witness took the blanks, gave two to Drisko, editor of the Machias Union, with full instructions concerning the defects and requested him to attend to the mater. The third blank witness sent to Whiting by mail.

He was asked by what authority he did this and said he supposed Leavitt knew his business. Mr. Talbot said he never supposed he was elected Senator until he received his certificate from Governor Garcelon. He had served a portion of the time in the Fusion Legislature. Mr. Talbot's testimony was straightforward and candid.

Garcelon and Sawyer to Testify.

Ex-Governor Garcelon has notified the committee that he will be present to testify to-morrow.

Mr. Hawes, Chairman of the Committee on State Seal, received a communication this evening from P. A. Sawyer, stating that he still held to his former position not to recognize this Legislature as a legal Legislature, and that for his arrest and confinement he should immediately institute proceedings against the proper party. Lest his silence should be misconstrued, he was ready to appear before the committee and answer under protest, any proper questions which may be put to him. The committee sent Mr. Sawyer word that they would be in session to morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Sawyer is still kept in confinement.

Exoneration of Mr. White.

It is understood that the committee on bribery stand four for completely exonerating Wallace R. White, two who think he is guilty and one undecided. The committee expect to report Saturday.

DENIS KEARNEY ARRESTED.

The Agitation at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11. A special says that in this agitation nothing is more certain than that a Socialistic, Communistic, Nihilistic element is acting in concert with the agitators and forming an important portion of their programme, but "the council" is fully informed of all that is going on in the Kearney camp.

Kearney Arrested.

Denis Kearney was arrested by the police at his residence this morning on two charges of misdemeanor based on his remarks at the meeting Tuesday night. He furnished bail and was released.

Public Opinion.

The arrest of Kearney has created considerable comment but no excitement or demonstration of any kind. Public opinion is divided as to the wisdom of the movement and it is believed it will amount to nothing, as the District Attorney and Sheriff are both friends of Kearney and elected on the workingmen's ticket.

The Witness in the Case is a police officer who attended the meetings in disguise and took notes. It is thought the Citizens' Protective Union will be able to secure the conviction of Kearney by moral pressure and that the policy of arresting persons using incendiary language will be vigorously pursued.

Citizens Enrolling.

The Citizens' Protective Union have enrolled 12,000 names. Gen. Barnes and Gen. McComb, as the head of the National Guards, are recruiting companies up to the maximum allowed by law.

The Commercial manifested a refreshing degree of coolness yesterday, in appropriating our special report of Bolduc's confession entire, without saying so much as "by your leave."

A Boston man advertises to send a solution of the position 13, 15, 14, in the game of 15 for 2 three-cent stamps. To those who write to him he replies: "pick up the 15 and put it after the 14."

SMELTS. The Belfast Journal says: The smelt fishery has proved a failure here this season, owing to the continuous mild weather. The fish are only taken here with hook and line through holes in the ice, as heretofore described. In Massachusetts and New Hampshire, nets and seines are used, and to this cause many fishermen attribute the growing scarcity of the fish. It is believed that the popular demand can be fully met by the use of hook and line.

RAILROAD STOCK. The Lewiston Journal says: "Maine Central stock continues steady. Eastern is being lulled at 44 for another brief period, until the Barings again become active purchasers. There is no secret about purchases of this stock by Baring Brothers. They are buying it largely and placing it in their name upon the books of the company, but what their ultimate object is can only be conjectured. Meantime all the interested railroad folks think there isn't going to be much of a shower."

Holt, Esq., cashier of the Veazie National Bank, of this city, an expert in the matter of penmanship, was before the Hale committee Wednesday afternoon examining the "amended" returns. LUMBER. Geo. H. Peters & Co.'s lumber circular for March, 1880, reports an active market for all kinds of lumber, with light arrivals, and prospects good for spring demand. The New York market promises so well that early shipments from the east are likely to find their way there, rather than to Boston, unless prices greatly improve there. Arriving there he lived with her a day or two, then borrowed ten dollars, all the money she had, and ran away. The Secretary ascertained that she had no legal residence in Boston, but did have one in Sangerville, in this State. He told her he would send her to the alms house, and write to the Sangerville authorities. She went away, saying she thought she could do better, and has not been seen since. She was slightly deranged and partially paralyzed. Her maiden name was Littlefield.

Republican District Convention.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO CHICAGO.

THE UTMOST ENTHUSIASM FOR BLAINE.

Remarks by Hon. A. G. Lebroke, Hon. L. Powers, C. A. Boutelle And Others.

Proceedings of the Convention.

In accordance with the call the Republican Delegates of the Fourth Congressional District, assembled in City Hall yesterday morning to choose two Delegates and two Alternates to attend the National Convention, at Chicago, Thursday, June third. The meeting was opened by E. C. Brett, Esq., Chairman of the District Committee, who read the call and then nominated Hon. A. G. Lebroke, of Foxcroft, as Chairman of the Convention. Mr. Lebroke came forward amid much applause and after extending his thanks for the honor conferred, he addressed the Convention extemporaneously, the following being a synopsis of his remarks:

REMARKS OF HON. A. G. LEBROKE.

It cost our English ancesters the struggle of centuries and rivers of blood shed at the point of the spear and the edge of the battle-axe to render fixed and perpetual in their constitution, the charter of their liberties, the vital guaranty that "no man shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property, except by the judgment of his peers, or by the law of the land," as declared in magna charta, wrested by the bold Barons from King John, and consummated at Runnymede in 1215.

Our otherwise excellent American Constitution failed to extend this culminating protection to all the inhabitants of the Nation. Not satisfied with the shield of the Constitution for the defence of slavery in the States where it existed, the slave breeders and slave drivers of the South made the election of Abraham Lincoln the occasion for the audacious attempt to disrupt this Government, and rend in twain this great Nation. By the blessing of Heaven this dire calamity was averted. By an expenditure of five thousand millions of dollars and the loss of three hundred thousand brave, patriotic men, in a gigantic war of four years, in which contending squadrons shook the continent with their tread, the gallant North succeeded, under the auspices of the National Republican party, in inscribing within the folds of the Federal Constitution, the substance of magna charta, as applied to the whole population, that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property, except by the judgment of his peers or by the law of the land.

The principles of the immortal Declaration of Independence were made concrete in our organic law, the constitution, so far as amendment and enactment could do.—Tens of thousands of unknown graves of Union soldiers in the dense forests of the Southern country, where sunlight mingles with dancing shadows, and where no music is heard except the sighing winds and the purling rill as it dances on its way to the ocean, attest the terrible cost of reaffirming upon paper the supreme law of the land.

Our own hillsides and smiling vales are dotted all over with the monuments and tablets of those who gave their lives as a sacrifice upon the altar of liberty, and for the perpetuity of free government. The sound of mourning for husbands and fathers, sons and brothers, thus sleeping the sleep of death, to whom life was just as dear as to us, has not yet been silenced nor muffled. It has cost all these and more to obtain this new covenant.

Has the covenant been kept and performed? Is the work of the Republican party finished? The covenant stands upon the record only. In fifteen States of this Union liberty lies prostrate and bleeding; free speech in behalf of justice is followed by free bullets; elections are worse than a mockery. But for this state of things, in the coming Presidential contest, the Republican party would carry the election as Niagara sweeps the leaves of autumn upon its thundering waters. Some have appeared to doubt the tales of horror and the evidence of fraud and bull-dozing in the South. Recent demonstrations in Maine have cured the doubting.

One whole co-ordinate branch of the State Government, in order to deprive the voters of the result of an election, about which there could be no controversy or doubt, went over in a solid body, in the attempt to bribe a set of men who were never elected to seize and subvert another co-ordinate branch of the government, with the express consideration, that under the cover of false certificates, they should hold official positions to which they never had the color of right. Thanks to the wisdom of the framers of our tri-fold form of Constitution, and to the learning, wisdom, courage and patriotism of our Judicial department, whose members, made up of both parties, are the peers of the ablest jurists in the land, and whose recent decisions, not being in conflict with the current of former decisions, show them eminent in legal learning, and capable of rising to the highest plane of statesmanship,—thanks to the patriotic citizens who came to aid in the rescue, and to the loyalty of the military, our beloved Dirigo State stands erect among the sisterhood of liberty-loving commonwealths of the American Union.

Mr. Lebroke here alluded to the Republican party as that alone on which the Nation's financial honor could safely rest, and to the great dangers of doctrines rife as dangerous as Russian Nihilism or French Communism. Their doctrines have already produced the bitter fruits of destructive riots in several States, and now threaten devastation to the Pacific coast.

Are we to lose the results of the great war for National life? Are all men of this Republic to enjoy the liberties covenanted to them in the Constitution? Is the Nation's credit to be maintained? Are life and property to be rendered secure against assassins and mob violence? Are the floodgates against Nihilism and Communism to be shut and secured, and if so by what party? The speaker addressed himself to the many reputable and property holding Democratic and Greenback citizens, who might too late discover that pandering to dangerous elements, would lead to certain ruin.

He predicted that many of the opponents of the Republican party, who had not voted at the recent municipal elections, would, for prudential reasons, in the coming State and National contests, array themselves on the side of wholesome rule, not strictly as Republicans, but as wise citizens, who would see to it that the Republic should receive no detriment, and that their homes and firesides should be protected.

The speaker said that some claimed they wanted a strong Government and a strong man for the Presidency. So do I. I want the man who has the magnetism to draw millions of freeman to his support. The peerless orator whose name is a household word everywhere; the greatest parliamentarian of the age; the giant who as leader of the minority in the House, held at bay the whole coterie of rebel Brigadiers, and kept them in subjection, as the great lion tamer did the ferocious denizens of the jungles which he had caged and subdued. I want the man who is pre-eminently able to stand at the head of a mighty and free Republic; I want for the Presidency the strongest man in the Nation; I want JAMES G. BLAINE.

The above remarks called forth repeated applause and at the close, in order to perfect the organization, E. C. Brett, of Bangor, and R. O. Robbins, of Newport, were chosen secretaries. As the latter gentleman was not in the house at the time, J. D. Maxfield, of Dexter was elected in his place.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

On motion of Mr. Thompson, of Dover, the Chairman designated the following Committee on Credentials: Otis Gilmore, Brewer; Wm. Paine, Foxcroft; W. M. Robinson, Houlton.

Mr. Vose, of Bangor, then moved that a Committee on Resolutions be appointed by the Chair, and the following gentlemen were named: C. A. Boutelle, Bangor; J. F. Sprague, Monson; L. Powers, Houlton.

REMARKS OF HON. L. POWERS.

While the committees were attending to their duties several gentlemen were called for, among them Hon. L. Powers, who was received with applause as he stepped upon the platform. Mr. Powers said: I am glad to greet so many warm Republican hearts this cold day, as it augurs well for victory this fall. As the gentleman who preceded me has said, the Republican party has accomplished a great work and still has a great deal to perform. It is the party of Seward, Grant and James G. Blaine, the man who we expect to have for standard-bearer, for I don't believe that politicians will be able to thwart the will of the people this year, as they did in 1876. We are confronted this year with the same old issue of State Rights, which we thought permanently settled at an immense sacrifice of life and treasure. Other questions also demand our attention, one of which is the right of every man to cast an honest ballot to be honestly counted, without which elections are a farce. This suppression of the rights of the people is practiced in some states of the Union and was attempted here, but did not succeed. This condition of affairs calls upon every Republican and every lover of liberty to buckle on his armor and enter the fight with the determination that it shall not continue. Mr. Powers then paid a handsome tribute to our candidate, Hon. James G. Blaine, when his remarks, which called forth frequent applause, were interrupted by the return of the Committee on Credentials.

REPORTS OF THE COMMITTEES.

Mr. Gilmore made the following report, which was accepted:

Whole number of delegates,	144
Penobscot County,	113
Aroostook County,	5
Piscataquis County,	26

Mr. Boutelle on behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, then submitted the following:

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the Republicans of the Fourth Congressional District of Maine in Convention assembled reaffirm the time-honored principles of the Republican Party, congratulate our fellow-citizens upon the triumph of the Constitutional rights of the people over a base conspiracy against the sacredness of the ballot, and we call upon all patriotic and law-abiding citizens to join with us in the coming political campaign in achieving a signal victory for the principles of popular government.

Resolved, That in the great Presidential contest of the year 1880, we are proud to see the honored name of Maine's distinguished statesman foremost among the favorites of the people, and believing that his powerful intellect, his indomitable courage, his magnetic eloquence and his stalwart Republicanism, will render him a magnificent and invincible leader of the Republican hosts in the National Campaign, we hereby instruct our delegates in the National Convention to use every honorable exertion to secure the nomination of James G. Blaine, for President of the United States.

The resolutions were greeted with loud applause and were unanimously adopted, after which the Chairman said that the choice of delegates would be in order.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES.

C. A. Boutelle, of Bangor, on behalf and by request of the delegates of Penobscot County as voted at their preliminary meeting, presented in fitting terms the name of Hon. Lewis Barker, of this city, for one of the delegates to the National Convention and moved that he be chosen by acclamation. Mr. Barker was unanimously chosen.

S. W. Matthews, Esq., of Caribou, on behalf and by request of the Aroostook County delegates, presented with complimentary remarks the name of Hon. Llewellyn Powers, of Houlton, for one of the delegates to the National Convention and moved that he be chosen by acclamation. Mr. Powers was unanimously chosen.

George F. Dillingham, Esq., of Oldtown, presented the name of Hon. Charles Shaw, of Dexter, for one of the Alternate Delegates and J. F. Sprague, Esq., of Monson, presented the name of Hon. E. A. Thompson, of Dover, for one of the Alternate Delegates, and both gentlemen were chosen by acclamation. The delegation therefore stands:

DELEGATES—Hon. Lewis Barker, of Bangor; Hon. Llewellyn Powers, of Houlton.

ALTERNATES—Hon. Charles Shaw, of Dexter; Hon. E. A. Thompson, of Dover.

REMARKS OF C. A. BOUTELLE.

At this point C. A. Boutelle was called for and was received with applause as he came forward. Mr. Boutelle said he thought there was little to be added to the timely remarks that had been made, as would readily be conceded by those who had heard the brilliant address of the Chairman, Mr. Lebroke, whose eloquence always exhausts every topic upon which it touches. He referred to the peculiar circumstances under which the Convention met, at the threshold of a political year that promises to be unparalleled in the history of the country. We have had a foretaste in Maine of the desperate measures to which the leaders of a desperate opposition are prepared to resort in order to seize control of the Government. The boldness of the frauds perpetrated by the Fusion conspirators in this State warn us what to expect from the conspirators who are working in a broader field. Already we hear the same taunts and threats from Washington that we heard a few months ago from Augusta. Just as the boast was made that Garcelon & Co., had the counting of the votes in Maine, so we are now jeeringly informed that the Electoral votes for President and Vice President are to be counted by a Democratic-Confederate Congress. And this threat has given rise to the demand for a "strong man" for the Republican candidate. Well, we believe in a strong man—we believe that a man who was strong enough to grapple with a desperate and entrenched conspiracy, to beat down and expose the false pretences of the conspirators, to meet them foot to foot and hilt to hilt, day and night throughout the most memorable struggle in the history of New England, and who led his party by constitutional and orderly methods to a splendid triumph of the fundamental principles of popular government—we believe that such a man, that JAMES G. BLAINE, is strong enough to lead the Republican Party of the Nation to victory, and strong enough to maintain the fruits of victory after it is won.

Mr. Boutelle spoke of the increasing popular enthusiasm for Mr. Blaine and the gratifying prospect of his nomination. In conclusion the speaker referred to the duty resting upon the Republicans of the Fourth Congressional District to assure its redemption in the coming campaign, and to that end he urged all to labor with energy and zeal until the Republican banner of our grand old District, which has drooped but once in twenty-four years, shall again be hoisted proudly to the mast-head.

The speaker was frequently applauded, and at the close of his remarks the Convention adjourned, sine die.

The proceedings were marked by the utmost harmony and every allusion to MR. BLAINE was greeted with enthusiastic applause. The Convention was a remarkably fine representative body of citizens and they separated full of determination and confidence in our ability to swing this section grandly into line in the coming campaign.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The following officers were elected in the towns named at the annual meetings held Monday:

ORRINGTON.

Moderator, J. E. Bowden; Clerk, J. D. Baker; Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor, J. D. Baker, Chas. Severance and Warren Nickersen; Treasurer and Collector, A. G. Dole; S. S. Committee, J. W. Phillips, Dr. G. S. Tibbets and Miss Hattie Pollard; Constable, J. D. Hinds.

ORNEVILLE.

Selectmen, Charles Hoxie, S. E. Ricker Crosby Ham; Collector, F. L. Philpot, Greenbackers; Clerk, G. H. French; Moderator, Treasurer and Supervisor, A. M. Warren, Republicans.

Coins.

Those present at the Art meeting not long since, were somewhat surprised at seeing so large and valuable a collection of ancient foreign, and early and late American coins, as were exhibited at that time. The collection of B. B. Thatcher, Esq., comprised some very fine specimens of early American gold; an entire set of American cents, and almost a complete set of whole, half and quarter dollars; an assortment of the smaller denominations, ten, five and three cent pieces and specimens of Cobb money, political tokens and medals.

There was also a large number of interesting foreign pieces, both in silver and copper, a full set of fractional currency, continental and confederate bills. Not much over one-half of Mr. Thatcher's collections was on exhibition, owing to lack of room in the show case.

Dr. E. M. Field, exhibited some very curious and ancient specimens, among them we mention pieces of North China money, Siamese bullet money, ancient Roman coins, Moorish from Tangier, and Morocco; also some pieces of Pine Tree coinage 1652, with many others equally interesting to look at.

The collection of Mr. F. H. Moses, of Bucksport, was confined exclusively to ancient coins, and it is said to be quite a valuable one. Each piece was wired to a bit of paper, on which was written a few words as to the time of its use, etc. It embraced many fine specimens nearly all of which were said to be genuine, we make mention of only a few, among which were those of the coin of Rome, Alexander the Great, Antoninus Nero, Constantine the Great, Germanicus, a Hebrew shekel Tribute money, Widow's Mite, and many others which being very rare were particularly interesting.

PENOBSCOT, SS. At the Supreme Judicial Court which was begun and holden at Bangor, within and for the County of Penobscot, on the first Tuesday, being the 6th day of January, A. D. 1880.

John B. P. Wheelden, of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, Plaintiff, vs.
William H. Smith, of Brooklyn, in County of Kings, and State of New York, Defendant.

In a plea of the case, for that the said Deft. at said Bangor, on the 29th day of August, 1879, hired of the Plff. a certain horse then and there owned by Plff., to drive from said Bangor, to Belfast, in the County of Waldo, and use there, at and about said Belfast, for a week from said 29th day of August, A. D. 1879, and then drive back to said Bangor, for a certain sum of money, to wit: the sum of two dollars per day, and the Plff. then and there delivered to the said Deft. the said horse to drive and use as aforesaid, and the said Deft. on the said 29th day of August, A. D. 1879, and the following day, to wit, the 30th day of August, A. D. 1879, by his servant and agent so carelessly, immoderately and recklessly drove said horse, that by reason thereof and for want of due care of the said horse, the said horse was thereby spoiled and his value wholly lost to the Plff.

Also for that the Plff. at Belfast, Waldo County, Maine, on the 29th day of August, A. D. 1879, was possessed of a certain mare of chestnut color, of the value of four hundred dollars, and being so possessed, thereafterwards, on the same day lost the same, and the same thereafterwards, on the same day came into the hands and possession of the said Deft., yet the said Deft., though he well knew the same to belong to said Plff., yet intending to injure and defraud him thereof, refused to deliver the same to said Plff., though thereto requested, but thereafterwards on the same day, converted the same to his own use.

Writ dated December 13th, 1879.

Attachment of real estate in Penobscot County, State of Maine, December 19th, 1879, returnable to the January Term of the Supreme Judicial Court begun and holden as aforesaid on the first Tuesday of January, A. D. 1880.
